TO THE WEST! TO THE WEST!

Before making your arrangements to follow the advice of the "thousands who have already gone," it would be well to consider what has been done to make the journey to your "Homes in the West" as pleasant and free from danger as human skill and foresight can accomplish.

By consolidation and construction, a road has been put into operation on the shortest possible line from Nashville, Tenn., to St.

Louis, "the future great City of the world."

This line, the

ST. LOUIS & SOUTHEASTERN RAIL-

WAY,

has, during the past year, earned an enviable reputation by its smooth track, prompt time, sure connections, and the magnificence of its passenger equipment. Its trains are made up of new and commodious day cars, provided with the celebrated Miller coupler and platform, and the Westinghouse air-brake.

It is positively the only line running
Pullman Palace Drawing-Room Sleeping Cars through without change from Nashville to St. Louis. No other line pretends to offer such advantages, either in distance, time, or equipment. Why, then, journey by circuitous routes? Do not be induced to purchase tickets to St. Louis or the West by any other line, remember that

The "St. Louis & Southeastern"

is the shortest, cheapest, quickest, best and only line under one management from Nashville to St. Louis, and is from 60 to 200 miles the shortest to St. Louis, Kansas City, Omaha, Denver, California, Texas, and all western points. It is also the "Chicago Shortest Line," via Evansville.

You can secure the cheapest rates for yourself and your movables on application, in person or by letter, to C. S. BAR-

RETT, Southern Passenger Agent, Postoffice Box 243, Chattanooga, Tenn., or to the undersigned.

THE YOUTH'S

COMPANION,

A WEEKLY PAPER FOR

Young People

AND THE FAMILY.

THE COMPANION aims to be a favorite in every family—looked for eagerly by the young folks, and read with interest by the older. Its purpose is to interest while it amuses; to be judicious, practical, sensible; and to have really permanent worth, while it attracts for the hour.

It is handsomely illustrated, and has for contributors some of the most attractive writers in the country. Among these are:

Edward Eggleston, Dr. I. I. Hayes,

Prof. Jas. DeMille, Louise C. Moulton,

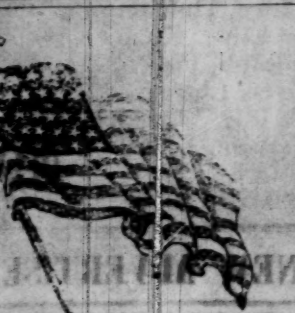

Louisa M. Alcott, "Sophie May,"

Rebecca H. Davis, C. A. Stephens,

Evening Post.

WILMINGTON, N. C.

Friday, February 5th, 1874.

A Striking Difference.

Mankind are constituted to confide in each other; and that trust is often reposed in men who deserve it by nothing except effrontery, knavishness or ignorance. Men are more or less imposed upon by others, and often a second time by the same person. But what can be thought of a man or set of men who repeatedly rest their dearest interests in the management of others, who commit a breach of trust, a betrayal of the confidence? And what impudence can be so blundering that of a man who always bungles or betrays, to again demand the confidence which he always violates?

Designing and corrupt men have received the support of both political parties in this country. The method of dealing with them which obtains in each party, is remarkable. When a Democrat has violated in the office which has been confided to him, the duties and denunciations pertaining to it, he receives but little if any reprobation in his party. Look at the Tammany thieves who robbed the city of New York, and it will be observed that it took a political revolution to break their leech like adhesion to power and plunder. The history of official corruption in our own State since the war shows that all the Democrats who were in the ring to profit by the issue of railroad bonds are as high in the office and affections of their party as before, and some of them higher, while the men who for the sake of loot called themselves Republicans, and were engaged in the same baseness, are ejected from the party to which they were temporarily attached.

In the debate last Saturday in the lower House of Congress, Mr. Kelly brought Ben Franklin forward in support of expansion. Now the school-boys who are even less informed than the one Macaulay so often refers to, know that Ben Franklin liked specie payments. His financial policy consisted in maxims which taught the art of getting money—hard money—and hoarding it. Honest old Ben would be aghast could he look at this country at the present time. Everything is so different from his rather obstinate opinions that the old gentleman would be glad to get back to his testing place. His notions were eminently adapted to the condition of the country as it was in his time, on rather to the acquisition of property by individuals.

Who is Caught?

The sapient and mellow-voiced Senator from Johnston county, Mr. Aver, bent upon doing something smart which would rebound to the interest of the Democratic party, and immortalize himself, introduced a resolution in the Senate on Saturday last calling upon Governor Caldwell for an itemized statement of all warrants drawn by the Executive on the State Treasurer in favor of the State Geologist for the years 1868-'69-'70-'71-'72 and '73. It was believed by the Senator that a larger amount had been drawn from the Treasury than was authorized by law, and he hoped that at an investigation it would be proved that the excess would be found during Governor Caldwell's administration; and then what a howl he and Joe Turner could raise over it! Well, the dead-fall was set and baited; in a little while, down she fell! and the trapper goes to get the game. He finds, to his consternation and amazement, that in 1868, Governor Worth, Democrat, issued warrants for six thousand dollars being one thousand more than he was authorized by law to issue to the Geologist; that in 1869 and 1870 Gov. Holden issued warrants to the same officer to the amount of $10,950, being $950 in excess of what the law authorized—and in 1871, '72 and '73, Governor Caldwell issued warrants to the same officer to the same amount as the amount authorized by law. Mr. Aver proposes to make a big stew out of the game he caught, to which all of his Democratic friends will be invited, when they will seriously consider the propriety of impeaching Governor Caldwell for "stabbing" in not allowing the "overdraws" from the Treasury. Bravo, for the mellow-voiced Senator from Johnston!!! Let it be remembered that the law, under which the foregoing warrants were drawn, appropriated $5,000 per year for geological purposes, and was the same during all the years above named.—Daily Examiner.

The elections in England show a great gain for the Conservatives; Greenwell returns Gladstone, and Boord, the latter a Conservative. The appeal of the late ministry to the country evinces that the country does not want them.

GENERAL ASSEMBLY.

(Condensed from the Raleigh News.)

Forty-EIGHTH DAY'S PROCEEDINGS, SENATE.

Tuesday, Feb. 5.

The Senate met at 11 o'clock, Lieut. Governor in the chair.

Message Received.

From his Excellency, the Governor, transmitting an itemized account of the warrants issued by him for the use of the State Geologist, &c.

Introduction of Bills.

By Mr. Seymour, a bill in regard to criminals. Referred.

Special Order.

At 12 o'clock the bill to adjust the State debt was resumed as the special order.

The motion of Mr. Dunham to reconsider the vote by which the amendment of Mr. Cowles to submit the question to the people, after a general discussion, prevailed by a vote of ayes 20, nays 19.

The vote then recurring on Mr. Cowles' amendment, the yeas and nays were called, and the amendment was adopted by a vote of ayes 24, nays 14.

Mr. Worth offered an amendment providing that two thirds of the amounts held by bondholders be presented before any part is paid. Adopted.

Mr. Morehead, of Guilford, moved to indefinitely postpone.

Mr. Dunham called the previous question, which, being sustained, the vote recurred on the amendment of Mr. Todd, which was offered as a substitute, and providing that the Governor turn over to the creditors of the State all property, franchises of the State, &c.—The substitute failed.

The vote was then taken on the Worth bill as amended, which passed its second reading by a vote of yeas 26, to nays 16.

On motion of Mr. Worth, the third reading of the bill was made the special order for Thursday next at 12 o'clock.

The second special order was taken up at 1 o'clock, being the general election bill, which passed the House several days ago, and reported in full by our Reporter in that body.

The committee submitted an amendment requiring the Sheriffs to make the returns by registered letters instead of "by mail or otherwise," which was adopted.

Mr. Grandy moved to postpone the further consideration till Thursday at 11 o'clock, and the bill be printed with amendments offered by Messrs. Waring and Ellis, of Columbus. Failed.

Mr. Cowles offered an amendment, requiring every voter, when challenged, to prove by some reliable witness, that he is entitled by the law, &c., to vote. The yeas and nays were called, and the amendment was adopted by a strict party vote.

Mr. Grandy offered an amendment providing that voters may register on the day of election, which failed.

Mr. Epps offered an amendment providing that any elector may vote at any precinct in his county, &c. Failed.

On the call for the previous question on the passage of the bill, Mr. Seymour moved to adjourn, upon which motion the yeas and nays were called and failed.

Mr. Hyman gave notice of an amendment.

The call of the previous question was sustained and the bill passed its second reading.

Adjourned.

HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES.

At 10:30 o'clock, Mr. Speaker Robinson called the House to order.

By Mr. Blythe, a bill to allow County Commissioners to contract for the construction of turnpikes. Referred.

By Mr. Carter, a bill in favor of the Institution for the Deaf and Dumb and Blind. Referred.

By Mr. Norment, a bill to amend the act amendatory of the charter of the town of Lumberton. Referred.

A message was received from the Senate transmitting the House resolution to raise a Joint Select committee, to examine the Calendar and report at what day the General Assembly can adjourn, so amended as to adjourn sine die on the 16th instant.

After a long debate, the consideration of the question of concurrence amendment was postponed until Monday next.

By Mr. Houston, a bill to repeal section 9, chapter 6, Battle's Revisal.

Unfinished Business.

The bill entitled an act to raise revenue, on its third reading, was taken up as the unfinished business of yesterday.

In section 16, schedule B, which provides for a license tax of $35 per annum on tobacco warehouses, Mr. Wheeler moved to strike out "$35" and insert "$20."

Mr. Settle urged the adoption of the amendment in a speech of some length, and after his remarks the amendment was adopted by a large majority.

In the same section, Mr. Settle offered provision to the effect, that any tobacco warehouseman who shall charge to account of sales of any patron or customer any item or sum under pretence or color of State taxes, he shall be liable to a tax of one per cent. on gross amount of commissions on said sales, subject to exemptions of the said chapter. The proviso was accepted by the chairman of the Committee on Finance, and became incorporated into the bill.

After the adoption and rejection of a large number of amendments, and lengthy debates thereon, the bill passed its third reading by a vote of yeas 66, nays 27.

Mr. Gorman moved to take up his resolution in reference to having night sessions. Not agreed to.

The committee on Pensions have referred the claims of the veterans of Mexico for pensions to a sub-committee for examination.

EDITORIAL BUDGET.

It is reported that some will send anything for exhibition to the Centennial, alleging that it is a private undertaking.

Extravagance does not pay. A piece of lace, fine as film as costly as diamonds, was offered for sale lately in Europe. Quaints declined to purchase at the enormous price. The wives of great bankers passed by on the other side. An American lady heard of it and sent a check for the amount. This was a year or so ago. Last week the estate of the husband of this American lady passed into the hands of trustees, and some savings banks, with moneys of the poor and industrious in their possession, were closed up.
